Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Stay at home guidance for households

It is really important that all parents and carers understand and follow the Government advice regarding when people in your household should self-isolate.

If you live with someone with COVID-19 symptoms or if anyone in your household is awaiting a test result then you must self-isolate.

This is because you may have been exposed to the virus and could pass it on to others, even if you don't have symptoms. Do not leave your home.

Full advice can be found here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/covid-19-stay-at-home-guidance/stay-at-home-guidance-for-households-with-possible-coronavirus-covid-19-infection>

Following this advice will reduce the risk of the virus spreading.

Thank you for your support.
